

About the AIM Overseas Late Application Fee

If you would like to submit an application for an AIM Overseas program after the official application closing date, there is a late application fee that you will need to pay to AIM Overseas.

It is important that students submit their academic results upon contacting AIM Overseas regarding the possibility of a late application, so the Student Coordinators can advise the student of their eligibility before paying the late application fee.

The late application fee is $115 in total, and this cost is broken down in the below information:

Initial Consultation booking fee ($55): this fee is paid once you are deemed eligible for the program in order to book in for a phone consultation with an AIM Overseas Student Coordinator. This amount is deducted from your final program fee.

Additional Late Application fee ($60): this fee covers the additional time spent in manually processing and fast tracking your application with AIM Overseas. This amount is not deducted from your final program fee.

The late application fee is to be paid to the AIM Overseas bank account once eligibility has been confirmed and an invoice has been emailed to you (using the details on bottom of the invoice) and a receipt should be sent to info@aimoverseas.com.au upon payment.
